4 SQUARE METRE RULE AND DOUBLE VACCINATED

Everyone has been keenly anticipating our economy opening up and provision for visiting loved ones again. However, with that comes some anxiety now that we are moving towards 'living with COVID'.

Our churches are open according to the State government requirements of the 4 square metre rule and double vaccination. Our smaller churches where no more than 30 people gather, does not require vaccination status to be known. This includes regular weekday Masses.

If there are parishioners who are not provided for under the current conditions, please contact the Parish office, or email Fr Michael (stm.michaelw@gmail.com).

All related correspondence will be treated confidentially.

Fr Michael

In essential things, unity. In non-essential things, liberty. In all things, charity. (St Augustine)

NEW MEMBERSHIP FOR PPC

As our Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) prepares for a renewal of membership, the most important part of this process is PRAYER. We ask everyone to pray that this process results in a membership that continues to foster the spiritual growth of parishioners and lead us all to respond actively.

1. The current PPC are seeking Recommendations for New Council Members. Forms can be found in the church or at the Parish Office.

• You don't need to ask the person whom you recommend, to accept. IT IS NOT A NOMINATION.

2. Recommendations close on 16th November. Forms can be returned by:

- Placing on the collection plate
- Or handing in at the Parish Office.

3. All recommended persons will be invited to attend an Information Meeting on Thurs 25th November to:

- Outline the Pastoral Council's Role and Function.
- Include details of expectations and responsibilities of Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) members.
- Ask participants whether they accept or decline nomination.

4. If there are more nominations than vacant positions, the PPC will prayerfully discern all nominations. The aim is to have a council with members who together provide a wide range of charisms and be broadly representative of our baptised community.

Introductory Rites – Greeting

The first thing we do really even before the Introductory Rite, is prepare ourselves, to move into sacred space and sacred time, into the presence of God. You see this in the great basilicas of Rome where you move through different spaces before you enter the Holy of Holies, as it were. Even physically. At Mass we prepare ourselves beforehand, in prayer. But then when the community gathers, we begin with the sign of the cross. Now we begin in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, as a way of saying we are entering into sacred space and sacred time. We're not exactly leaving our everyday life but we're entering into another depth and the depth we're entering into is the depth of the Trinity because, again, it's God who gathers us. We might decide to go to Mass but, in the end, it's God who is calling us to share His own life. And the life of God is what we call the Trinity which is perfect communion – a love that is completely unshadowed. And then the priest greets the people who have entered that sacred space and sacred time, the presence of God, with words taken from the New Testament. And so much of the language of the Mass is biblical. The words of scripture are sacred words. They're words born of the Trinity. So therefore the priest, who isn't just himself, when he puts on the vestments he becomes something more than himself – he remains himself but he becomes a figure of Christ in the midst of God's people, and speaking words that are not his own, words that are given to him to speak, from the New Testament: "The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the Communion of the Holy Spirit be with you." And the people respond: "And with your spirit." This is the language of Communion, it's the language born of the Trinity. And that's where we start.

30th Anniversary Dili Massacre, Timor-Leste:

On November 12, 1991, 271 unarmed and peaceful protesters were massacred by Indonesian troops at Santa Cruz Cemetery in Dili, Timor Leste. 250 people are still listed as missing. Timorese protesters attended Mass at Motael Church on the morning of the massacre to honour and remember Sebastião Gomes, a fellow protester, who had been killed by the Indonesian military on October 28. The protesters then walked two kilometres in procession to Santa Cruz Cemetery where they were met by an unprovoked assault with automatic weapons. Those who were not killed in the initial attack were bayoneted. People who fled to nearby houses for shelter were hunted down and murdered. In the following days, Indonesian security forces arrested suspected protesters, and many were tried and imprisoned. Others were tortured and killed. We pray: for the young Timorese who died for freedom in the Santa Cruz cemetery 30 years ago, for their families and for all the Timorese people.

The Fifth Annual World Day of the Poor 14th November
“The Poor will Always Be With You.”

Pope Francis says,
 A different approach to poverty is required. This is a challenge that governments and world institutions need to take up with a farsighted social model capable of countering the new forms of poverty that are now sweeping the world and will decisively affect coming decades. If the poor are marginalised, as if they were to blame for their condition, then the very concept of democracy is jeopardised and every social policy will prove bankrupt.
 With great humility, we should confess that we are often incompetent when it comes to the poor. We talk about them in the abstract; we stop at statistics and we think we can move people's hearts by filming a documentary. Poverty, on the contrary, should motivate us to creative planning, aimed at increasing the freedom needed to live a life of fulfilment according to the abilities of each person.

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR RECENTLY DECEASED:

Entrance Antiphon

Let my prayer come into your presence.
Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

A reading from the book of Kings (17:10-16)

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: "Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth.'" The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down.

It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. R.

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age R.

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (9:24-28)

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (12:38-44)

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

Scripture Notes

It is always a professional hazard that some with an important role in a society expect the respect due to the role to accrue to them personally. Some of the scribes were no exception. Their role was significant as they were interpreters of religious law.

Jesus strongly criticised those among them who let the importance of their roles go to their heads, singling them out particularly for their power over the poor. For spurious reasons of piety, they encouraged the poor to contribute well beyond their means to the wealth of the temple, and disgusted Jesus. His comment was not a commendation of the poor woman, generous as she was, but a cry of distress at the exploitation she suffered at the hands of the professionals.

Some would interpret the woman's contribution as a foreshadowing of the total gift that Jesus was soon to make of himself in his death. However, Mark's placing of this incident at such a distance from Jesus' arrest and execution would advise against this reading.
