SPIRITUAL SPRING CLEANING TIPS

- Missed the start of Lent? No bother – start whenever you can – even an imperfect attempt is better than none.
- Make a plan. Make it achievable. And write it down. Poorly defined goals tend to get lost in the clutter of life.
- Keep forgetting to honour your Lenten promise? Diarise it. Set the alarm on your phone. Put sticky notes on the bathroom mirror. Pen it on the back of your hand. Get an accountability partner (kids make excellent ones!)
- Regressed to bad habits? Just start over. Don't let the laziness discourage you recommit regularly to your Lenten promise.
- Struggling to stay motivated? Bolster your Lenten promise by offering it for an additional cause. e.g. the comfort of a sick friend, the suffering of a particular family, the work of a missionary etc.

A Prayer for 4th Sunday of Lent

(from 'Remember' - A Lenten Program from the Diocese of Wollongong.)

Lord, wait for me on the roads of my choices, today and always.

Look for me in the undergrowth of my ignorance.

Seek me in the wilderness of my delusion.

Rescue me in the tide of my self-absorption.

Release me from the chains of my arrogance.

For I have no God but you, I want no God but you.

Be God for me, with me and in me.

With this sure knowledge

I will find the way home to you.

Amen.

PRAYER FOR UKRAINE

God of peace and justice,
 we pray for the people of Ukraine today.
 We pray for peace and the laying down of weapons.

We pray for all those who fear for tomorrow,
 that your Spirit of comfort would draw near to them.

We pray for those with power over war or peace,
 for wisdom, discernment and compassion to guide their decisions.

Above all, we pray for all your precious children, at risk and in fear, that you would hold and protect them.
 We pray in the name of Jesus, the Prince of Peace. Amen.

Scripture Notes

Paul's policy was to preach to God's chosen people first, the Jews, but when they rejected his message, he turns to the Gentiles who receive it with joy.

In the Gospel Jesus describes himself as the Good Shepherd and made wonderful promises to those who belong to him. He promised that none would ever be lost and he promised to lead them to the pastures of eternal life. It is a very comforting and reassuring feeling of being known and loved by Jesus, who takes care of us in life and death. However, a true relationship is a two-way thing; we have to choose to belong. Belonging entails 3 things:

- To believe in God- but this is only the beginning
- To listen to God – listening to his voice is to hear and understand his teachings
- To follow God and do his word.

This will not guarantee an easy life, in fact the opposite may be more likely.

The flock is an image of community which is fundamental to Christianity and of being human. We can't belong to Jesus without belonging to his flock. "Why should I go to church?" Why can't I just worship God in my own way?" We need our faith community to keep us on track, inspire us, to support one another on our faith journey and to nourish our faith. Jesus' death was entirely voluntary. He did not lose his life he gave it. All Jesus wants from us is a life of love and service.

8. Liturgy of the Word - Prayers of the Faithful

We've said we believe what we have heard, we've professed our faith and then our faith becomes a prayer. We sometimes call the 'Prayer of the Faithful' – those who have put their faith in the word they have heard. This prayer is a prayer of priestly intercession, as the whole community of the faithful is a priestly community and part of priestly service is to intercede for the people and for the world. This is a prayer that looks to the Church and to ourselves, our families, whatever the needs might be, but it is the priestly people – the Church – interceding with God, in the power of the Holy Spirit, in the power of faith, for the whole world. God wants us to enter into dialogue with Him in prayer. He has spoken to us, now we speak to Him. He wants us to be part of bringing peace out of violence, bringing joy out of sorrow, bringing life out of death. He wants us to work with Him. Our prayer of intercessions recognises, that the God who has called us to Himself, is the God who listens to our prayer and wants us to work with Him for the salvation of the world. Normally there is an intention, for the Church in every place on earth and then a silence and then the prayer.

Entrance Antiphon

Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.

The Opening Prayer also known as the Collect

O God, who through your Word reconcile the human race to yourself in a wonderful way, grant, we pray, that with prompt devotion and eager faith the Christian people may hasten toward the solemn celebrations to come. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A reading from the book of Joshua (5:9-12)

The Lord said to Joshua, 'Today I have taken the shame of Egypt away from you.' The Israelites pitched their camp at Gilgal and kept the Passover there on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening in the plain of Jericho. On the morrow of the Passover they tasted the produce of that country, unleavened bread and roasted ears of corn, that same day. From that time, from their first eating of the produce of that country, the manna stopped falling. And having manna no longer, the Israelites fed from that year onwards on what the land of Canaan yielded.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times,/ his praise always on my lips;
In the Lord my soul shall make its boast./ The humble shall hear and be glad. R.
Glorify the Lord with me./ Together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord and he answered me;/ from all my terrors he set me free. R.
Look towards him and be radiant;/ let your faces not be abashed.
This poor man called; the Lord heard him/ and rescued him from all his distress. R.

A reading from the second Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (5:17-21)

For anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here. It is all God's work. It was God who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the work of handing on this reconciliation. In other words, God in Christ was reconciling the world to himself, not holding men's faults against them, and he has entrusted to us the news that they are reconciled. So we are ambassadors for Christ; it is as though God were appealing through us, and the appeal that we make in Christ's name is: be reconciled to God. For our sake God made the sinless one into sin, so that in him we might become the goodness of God.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

I will rise and go to my Father and tell him:
Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke (15:1-3,11-32)

The tax collectors and the sinners were all seeking the company of Jesus to hear what he had to say, and the Pharisees and the scribes complained. 'This man,' they said, 'welcomes sinners and eats with them.' So he spoke this parable to them:

'A man had two sons. The younger said to his father, "Father, let me have the share of the estate that would come to me." So the father divided the property between them. A few days later, the younger son got together everything he had and left for a distant country where he squandered his money on a life of debauchery.

'When he had spent it all, that country experienced a severe famine, and now he began to feel the pinch, so he hired himself out to one of the local inhabitants who put him on his farm to feed the pigs. And he would willingly have filled his belly with the husks the pigs were eating but no one offered him anything. Then he came to his senses and said, "How many of my father's paid servants have more food than they want, and here am I dying of hunger! I will leave this place and go to my father and say: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as one of your paid servants." So he left the place and went back to his father.

'While he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with pity. He ran to the boy, clasped him in his arms and kissed him tenderly. Then his son said, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son." But the father said to his servants, "Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Bring the calf we have been fattening, and kill it; we are going to have a feast, a celebration, because this son of mine was dead and has come back to life; he was lost and is found." And they began to celebrate.

'Now the elder son was out in the fields, and on his way back, as he drew near the house, he could hear music and dancing. Calling one of the servants he asked what it was all about, "Your brother has come" replied the servant "and your father has killed the calf we had fattened because he has got him back safe and sound." He was angry then and refused to go in, and his father came out to plead with him; but he answered his father, "Look, all these years I have slaved for you and never once disobeyed your orders, yet you never offered me so much as a kid for me to celebrate with my friends. But, for this son of yours, when he comes back after swallowing up your property - he and his women - you kill the calf we had been fattening."

'The father said, "My son, you are with me always and all I have is yours. But it was only right we should celebrate and rejoice, because your brother here was dead and has come to life; he was lost and is found."
