Come, Holy Spirit of Pentecost.
Come, Holy Spirit of the great South Land.
O God, bless and unite all your people in Australia and guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council.

Give us the grace to see your face in one another and to recognise Jesus, our companion on the road.

Give us the courage to tell our stories
and to speak boldly of your truth.

Give us ears to listen humbly to each other and a discerning heart to hear what you are saying.

Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
that we may live the joy of the Gospel.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
bread for the journey from age to age. Amen.

Liturgy of the Word – Homily

After we have listened to the biblical readings, we have the homily. It's meant to be a proclamation of the Good News, because, if God speaks to us, it's always Good News. That doesn't mean to say it's easy news but it's Good News. The homilist has listened to the Word of God with the people and now helps the people to take that word and apply it to their everyday life as individuals and as a community.

It's God's word that we're hungering for. The proclamation of the biblical readings means that the homily has to be not a word of the priest but the Word of God. It is essentially a liturgical moment, the homily. Not personal to the priest but the Word of God spoken to God's people and if they hear the Word of God, there will be that sense that I have heard the Good News that can sustain me in my life and even empower me for mission.

8th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR C

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord became my protector.
He brought me out to a place of freedom;
he saved me because he delighted in me.

The Opening Prayer also known as The Collect because the priest collects/gathers all our prayers (in the silence between 'Let us pray..... and "Grant us, ....." ) and offers them up to God.

Grant us, O Lord, we pray, that the course of our world may be directed by your peaceful rule and that your Church may rejoice, untroubled in her devotion.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

A reading the book of Ecclesiasticus (27:4-7)

In a shaken sieve the rubbish is left behind, so too the defects of a man appear in his talk. The kiln tests the work of the potter, the test of a man is in his conversation. The orchard where the tree grows is judged on the quality of its fruit, similarly a man's words betray what he feels. Do not praise a man before he has spoken, since this is the test of men.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord/ to make music to your name, O Most High,/ to proclaim your love in the morning/ and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree/ and grow like a Lebanon cedar. R.

Planted in the house of the Lord/ they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old,/ still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just./ In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (15:54-58)

When this perishable nature has put on imperishability, and when this mortal nature has put on immortality, then the words of scripture will come true: Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting? Now the sting of death is sin, and sin gets its power from the Law. So let us thank God for giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Never give in then, my dear brothers, never admit defeat; keep on working at the Lord's work always, knowing that, in the Lord, you cannot be labouring in vain.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life.

Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke (6:39-45)

Jesus told a parable to his disciples, 'Can one blind man guide another? Surely both will fall into a pit? The disciple is not superior to his teacher; the fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher. Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the plank in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye," when you cannot see the plank in your own? Hypocrite! Take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you will see clearly enough to take out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.

'There is no sound tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again a rotten tree that produces sound fruit. For every tree can be told by its own fruit: people do not pick figs from thorns, nor gather grapes from brambles. A good man draws what is good from the store of goodness in his heart; a bad man draws what is bad from the store of badness. For a man's words flow out of what fills his heart.'

Scripture Notes

'They shall bear fruit even in old age; vigorous and sturdy shall they be...' Psalm 92:15

One of my ministerial joys comes from meeting monthly with a small group of community members who are in their early 90's. We have enriching conversations about the later years of life and how this stage affects their spiritual growth. They remind me that no amount of physical diminishment or limitations can mar a person's ability to seek an ever closer relationship with God. Psalm 92 proclaims that the lives of elders can continue to be fruitful in new ways. I hear this in their descriptions of increasing gratitude for the things overlooked in the past - such as being able to take a shower, relishing quiet time for deeper contemplation and increasing awareness of the endless opportunities to extend a kindness to someone nearby. These older women have become more convinced about the most essential part of life's journey: a vigorous union with the One who has claimed their hearts.
